

The BronxWorks 2026 Lifting Lives Gala

Hosted By:

Audrey Puente
Meteorologist/Feature Reporter
FOX 5 New York

Audrey Puente is a 4-time Emmy award winning television meteorologist and feature reporter for FOX 5 Television in New York City. She has been delivering weather reports for the Big Apple for the last 26 years.

This familiar face has also been seen in front of the weather maps on My 9 TV, WCBS-TV, CBS Network, and WNBC-TV. She proudly represented her roots by co-hosting the National Puerto Rican Day Parade for several years while at WNBC and FOX 5. Most recently she won an Emmy award for a Caribbean special where she highlighted several Nuyoricans.

Audrey previously worked as a weather anchor for television stations in Jackson, Mississippi...Greenville, Mississippi...and Savannah, Georgia. Audrey is a graduate of Syracuse University, where she earned a Bachelor Degree in Speech Communications. She earned her Masters Degree in Geosciences with an emphasis in Meteorology from Mississippi State University. Audrey is also a member of the National Association Of Hispanic Journalists, the American Meteorological Society, and the National Weather Association.

Along with predicting cold weather outbreaks, Audrey has helped to keep thousands of New Yorkers warm for the last 10 winters with her Layers of Love Coat Drive. She is a mother of 3 teenagers and resides in Manhattan.